Two-octave natural minor scale

Hands separately - MM ♩ = 72

The image shows a musical score for the two-octave natural minor scale in D minor, hands separately. The score is written in 4/4 time and consists of two staves: a treble clef staff and a bass clef staff. The key signature has one flat (Bb). The scale is played in two octaves, starting from D4 in the bass clef and ending on D6 in the treble clef. The score includes fingering numbers (1-5) above and below the notes to guide the student. A large, semi-transparent watermark reading 'Sample' is overlaid diagonally across the page.
